Hebrun Spellbreaker, Fallen Paladin | Dwarf Paladin 5 (Fallen) | Neutral Good

As a child, everything was laid out in stark black and white. You trained as a warrior and dedicated your life to the god Moradin who created the mountains. As one of his faithful paladins, you swore an oath of honor, justice and obedience to the Dwarven Duke. Luckily you never had to take a vow of chastity.

You spent your days protecting the Duke and training as a Spellbreaker to prevent magical attacks. Your nights were spent with gorgeous women. After one night with a spirited lass, you invited her to the Duke's throne room to see court. But she so distracted you that an evil sorcerer cast a curse upon the Duke before you could stop him. Because of your inattention, the Duke died. In disgust, Moradin stripped you of your paladin's rank and powers.

In truth, it hasn't been that bad. The Duke's daughter turned out to be a better ruler than her father. You were cast out from the dwarves, but discovered how constricting your life had become. Rules and orders had filled every day, but now you have the freedom to make your own way. To sleep in if you like or to spend the night with a pretty woman. Still, you have traveled far, seeking atonement for your failures. You still want to restore your honor, but you're not sure you even want your old life back.

Goals:

- Seek out the most beautiful of women & enjoy life to the fullest.
- Hadron the merchant hired you to deliver 12 potions of cure disease to Tylanarius, a healer in Lyrra.
- You seek a chance to restore your lost honor.

Avenloris: A lovely, experienced noblewoman who took command of Lyrra until her stepson was ready to take the throne.

Sandra Delaney: A good-looking young woman with a dead look in her eye. You don't think she can be trusted.

Havok Mott: A large mercenary whose strength lies in his rage. You respect his prowess, though his lack of discipline will be his undoing.

Brother Lawrence: A kind priest whose vow of poverty and selflessness for the common folk reminds you of your own lost honor.

Lex Savoy: A spoiled merchant from a rich family who preyed on others' weaknesses. He bought and sold the poor as slaves until recently.
